MIL'S MUSINGS

By Richard Milbrodt

Last week's front page editorial blew up quite a storm of comments, both printable and unprintable. One comment that seemed to be a concensus of some opinion was that of Dave "Mac" McCormick. He said that the Chamber of Commerce not acting on something was not new and that the whole episode reminded him of an experience he had while in the Navy.

Two men under him, with whom mischief was a guidepost, were given night watch on a carrier as a disciplinary assignment. After three weeks of night watch, the one sailor decided that he would really fix the other by writing down in the ship's journal, "My replacement reported for duty drunk." The following night the other sailor retaliated by recording in the journal, "My replacement reported for work sober."

"When and if, the Chamber acts on anything positively another front page should be devot-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Lemon Grove Review

Would like to say I've been taking the Review since coming to this community (3½ years) and enjoy it very much, it certainly is growing. Mr. Goodwin's editorial in the last issue was certainly a "dandy".

All I can say is Good for Mr. Goodwin.

Nettie M. Tucker,
1505 Drexel Drive.

Dear Mr. Goodwin:

I was particularly pleased with your editorial on the Chamber of Commerce and the meaning behind it.

There is no reason why this community cannot be as progressive as it is fast-growing, except that leadership is sadly lagging.

There is really no other organization so representative as the Chamber that can be the voice of the community. Thus the Chamber is nominally the leader and the spokesman.

To best serve our residents the Chamber Board must think of themselves as servants of the community . . . not as judge and jury . . . and must conduct themselves accordingly.

Sincerely,
Rev. Morris Mulkey,
pastor of First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove.

Dear Editor:

Will you kindly comment on the following letter containing the question, "Where does philanthropy end and penalization begin?" Quotes from your editorial, "Stated Forrest Baxter, 'I resent being penalized by projects such as this just because I am giving my time to the Chamber."

Mr. Baxter, like many of us, belongs to more than one organization. If he does not take tickets at each one he is considered an ingrate.

Possibly he and Mrs. Baxter are like many others, full of sympathy for drives, yet prefer to mail a check to local headquarters rather than give up time to sell tickets.

Again, your question, Where does philanthropy end and penalization begin?

sincerely,
Beatrice L. Morse.

Chamber Board Holds Special Meeting To Endorse "Dimes"

A special meeting was called by the Grove Chamber of Commerce directors Wednesday night after seven members petitioned for it.

The meeting was designed to discuss an editorial run in last week's issue of the Review.

One of the several points of criticism wa s that the writer of the editorial, Max Goodwin, had not properly identified himself as the vice-president of the chamber he was criticizing.

The board unanimously endorsed the local March of Dimes program, which was the subject matter of the editorial.

They'll Do It Every Time — Kiddy Says

Kids are more realistic than preachers and Rev. Dan Apra had it proved to him Sunday.

A short, interesting sermon, tailored for the youngsters is given just prior to the regular adult sermon each week at the Congregational Church.

Drawing an analogy between an alarm clock and the conscience, Rev. Apra told how persons could dull their awareness to the clarion call of an alarm clock by shutting it off instead of arising when the bell rings.

"Our conscience is our alarm clock," he told the kiddies. "We should heed it when it rings. For example, you and your mother and a jar full of cookies are in the kitchen and Mother said not to touch them. Then Mother is called out of the room. You lift the cookie jar lid, you reach to take a cookie, and then what happens," asked the reverend smiling over his point well made.

"Mamma comes back in and catches you," responded a savvy little fellow.

Business Women's League Inducts 3

Lunch was served to the Business Women's League of Lemon Grove January 15th at the Women's Club. Mrs. Al Huebsch presided.

Three new members were welcomed. They are Mrs. J. H. Woody and Mrs. Lee R. Jordan of the Leewood Trailer Park, and Mrs. Walter G. Myers, who has recently opened a beauty shop in her home on Buena Vista Avenue. Other guests were Mrs. B. F. Ailshie from Sargent, Nebraska, Mrs. Kenneth O .Arnold, Mrs. Alyce Dolby, Mrs. Randolph Morse, and Honorary Member, Isobelle McCrae.

The Business Women have taken the responsibility of selling 100 tickets for the March of Dimes benefit dance at Helix High School, January 24th. They are also cooperating with the Teacher's Association in sponsoring the return of the bloodmobile to Lemon Grove on February 28th.

The next regular meeting will be held February 5th at seven at Michael's Cafe in Lemon Grove.

Bud Nichols who operates the Camera and Sport Goods Shop at 7848 Broadway, was installed last week as president of the San Diego County Photographer Dealers and Finishers Association. Installation was held at the Beach and Tennis Club in La Jolla. Thirty dealers make up the organization and meetings are held monthly at Comanche Bowl.

Rummage Sale Makes Killing. Thanks Expressed By Clubs

The Ways and Means Committee of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club has asked the Review to express thanks to the firms and individuals who aided in making the sale a great success.

The committee asked that expressions of appreciation be given to Sol Blanc for the use of his building for the sale.

The following business firms aided in the project: Western Auto Supply; Lemon Grove Department Store; Broadway Radio Shop; Lane's Men's Furnishings; Davis Food Center; Mode O'Day; Haizlip's Pharmacy; Silver Stores; Grove Pastry and others.

Both the Seniors and Juniors participated in the event.

New Furniture Store Opens

Another new enterprise gets underway in Lemon Grove this week with the opening of the Nu-Way Furniture Store at 3504 Main Street.

Featuring a policy "never being undersold" the shop will handle furniture and appliance items, co-proprietors of the shop are Harold Preston and Charles MacDonald. The firm has been popular in the San Diego area among motel, lodge and villa operators.

Preston pointed out that until his firm was able to offer durable merchandise such as hotel owners require, at prices comparable with northern dealers. these operators were forced to go to Los Angeles for their merchandise. That has been completely changed now, he says.

MacDonald, well known in wholesale rug and carpet circles, plans some unusual promotions in floor coverings, he says.

Opening features will include near-cost pricing of merchandise to acquaint the local residents with the shop, the partners said.

"Lemon Grove Hi-Y"

Robert Turnbull

The Lemon Grove Hi-Y has just installed new officers in its club, and will continue to roll smoothly, as it did under the excellent Presidency of ex-Prexy Jay Elston. The new officers are as follows: President and Advertising Chairman, Robert Turnbull (yours truly); Vice-President and program chairman, Dick Diedrick; Secretary and Membership chairman, Jim Pratt; Treasurer, Willy Blair; Chaplain, Joel Gleghorn; and Sgt.-of-arms, Ken Stratton.

Most of the members of our Hi-Y were in the Grove, Saturday, pitching in and really helping put over this Block-of-Dimes Campaign. Right at the moment the club is entered in the Hi-Y Basketball tournament. We dropped our first game, last Saturday nite down at the "Y", to Escondido Hi-Y. We lost by a slim 29-25, and we did exceptionally well considering that they had lots of practice and we had none at all.

Maybe one of our members will journey to Sacramento to the annual Hi-Y Conference, if so I'll write a detailed report on what went on while he's up there. Other projects that our club does is to go to Hollywood once a year; have two members go to a camp; hold joint meetings with other boys and girls clubs; show films at the meetings; enter tournaments of all sorts; do school or community projects; have dances, etc. Really it's lots of fun and good experience for any growing young man. Anyone that is interested in joining, just call me, at H6-6182. Only requirement is that you have to be in High School.

"Highland Lads And Lassies"

Robert Turnbull

Mr. Robert Rue, Vocal Director of Helix High, attended the Winter Conference of the Southern California Vocal Association. It was an all day session and was held on Saturday, January 17th, on the campus of the University of Southern Cal.

Helix is going all out to put over the largest dance ever believed to be put on by them. It is Helix's first "March of Dimes" dance to be held Saturday evening, in the Helix High Cafeteria at 8:00 p. m. The music is to be furnished by Al Cassel's band. (Al has a pretty daughter that is a junior at Helix by the name of Diane.) Starting around 9:30 there will be an hour floor show, with a wrestling exhibition by the great 'Baron Michele Leone,' and it is rumored that he will have a grudge fight against another well known wrestler. The Key Club of Helix will put on a Can-Can dance (which by the way is a boys' club), yours truly and Joan Wilson (a cheerleader) will do a pantomine of a popular record; and Joan and two other boys will do still another crazy stunt; plus other special enter-

The March of Dimes dance, scheduled for Saturday at the Helix High School "ballroom" occupied the attention of the Foothills area as the Grove polio fund neared the half way mark.

More than $2,000 of the $5,000 goal had been achieved according to Tom Warburton and Channing P. Mason, co-chairmen of the local section of the event.

About $400 was collected on the first balloon sale and nearly $450 was contributed in last week's "block of dimes" event.

The Brownies, Girl Scouts and Blue Birds, together with units of Helix High and Grove schools joined together to tap practically everyone who walked or drove through Lemon Grove area Saturday.

They had the support of many adults and the Grove Fire Department. Bands and cheer groups from both schools helped build up enthusiasm for the event.

So far, Helix youths, have collected nearly half of the $1,000 total they set as their goal. Approximately $500 worth of dance tickets have been accounted for and with the cash in the iron lungs it is estimated that the total would touch 23 or 24 hundred dollars.

Included in this figure is an estimated $500 to come from collections at the various Grove schools.

The dance at Helix is the big deal for the moment. Al Cassel and his orchestra, through the courtesy of local 325 will play for dancers without a penny cost to the March of Dimes group. A floor show which will include a bathing beauty contest by the Woman's Club Juniors, a can-can dance group, and a wrestling burlesque act by State College athletes

Dancing will get under way at 8 p. m. and last till midnight and Mason and Warburton estimate that more than half of the 2,000 ticket subscribers will turn out for the event.

Bob Browne, who earned his command pilot wings on ticket distribution on this event, came up for a goodly cheer from the polio committee for his enthusiastic effort. Browne, in turn, praised the various service clubs and business firms for their help.

Latest group, reports Browne, to take over a bloc of tickets with enthusiasm and good nature is the local Lion's Club. They smuggled Browne into a meeting last week, furnished him with an interpreter and gave him part of an important program so that he could make his pitch.

Forty tickets were taken immediately and more than one hundred more were accepted for distribution.

Saturday will also see the Monterey Heights Girl Scouts and Brownies, 150 strong, turn out for a "block of Dimes."

The following Saturday another balloon project coupled with a cut-flower event will all but wind-up the current drive. Actual wind-up will come with the Mother's March, a PTA event, early in February.

LAST HURDLE CLEARED FOR GROVE JR. HI. BUILDING

Approval of the junior high school project in the Lemon Grove School District has been received from both the U. S. Office of Education and the State Department of Finance. This clears the last hurdle facing the construction of the big project on Lincoln between Kempf and School Lane. C. F. Von Gunden was awarded the construction contract earlier this month and that construction will now begin as soon as contract documents are prepared and signed.

The bid of Contractor Von Gunden was below the combined state and federal money allowed for the project. The State Allocation Board has therefore approved the transfer of the additional state funds from the junior high project to the district administration building project, which is the only state approved project, besides the junior high one, not yet completed in the district. Two years ago six projects were approved for the Lemon Grove Schools; when the administration building is constructed, the entire project will have been completed.

The extra funds from the junior high project, if not earmarked now for this other district project, would revert to the Federal government and thus be of no profit to Lemon Grove. The district is entitled to this aid, which is an outright grant and is not subject to repayment, because of the many federally employed people residing in this area.

Under the new state building program, approved by the people at the November election and known then as Proposition 24, needed classrooms will be constructed. The school district is at present preparing applications to provide the necessary additional classrooms to house the ever-swelling enrollment here and to relieve double sessions in the lower grades.

Papas Nose Out Kids In Bee

At Dads' Night at the Lemon Grove School P. T. A. meeting last Thursday evening, the fathers proved their spelling ability by downing pupils from the sixth, seventh, and eighth grade classes. Although the fathers made mistakes early in the contest, Arthur Thomas, Monterey Heights School principal, was the only one remaining at the end of the bee. Gordon Hoard, 8-1 student, took second place honors. Others who participated in the game which pitted fathers against their children from the intermediate school were Barbara Thomas, Nina Cornelius, Mr. John Cornelius, Anna Harlan, Mr. Robert Harlan, Mary Conlee, Mr. James Conlee, Antonie Kallis, Mr. Felix Kallis, Randall Nisleit, Mr. Gerhardt Nisleit, Carolyn Randall ,Mr. Harold Randall, John Blaine, Mr. John Blaine, Sr., Beverly Svalstad, Mr. Palmer Svalstad, and Mr. Henry Hoard.

Principal speaker for the evening was Robert Cordry, student body advisor from Grossmont Union High School, who spoke on pre-teenagers and their growing up. Topics of the program for the evening was "Now Is the Time to Consider the Teen-ager." Mr. Cordry was introduced by Mrs. Virgil Danielson, program chairman. She also introduced Gordon Breidenthal, sixth grade teacher, who acted as master of ceremonies for the spelling bee.

During the brief business meeting which preceded the program, Mrs. Robert Beckham, president, called upon Ben I. Schei, intermediate school principal, who spoke to the parents about the approaching school assembly for the March of Dimes. Mrs. H. K. Newell, health chairman, announced plans for the Mothers' March and called for volunteers to assist with the worthwhile undertaking.

Announcements concerning the Well Baby Conference held the second Monday of each month at the Youth Center were made by Mrs. R. Milner. Margaret Darroch, public relations chairman for the Lemon Grove District Teachers 'Association, announced that the American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Lemon Grove on Saturday, February 28, from 11:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. She urged all parents to sign the pledge cards which will be sent home with the students in the near future. The visit is being sponsored by the Business Womens' League and the local teachers' association.

Hostesses for the evening were the home representatives from the 7-3 and 7-6 classes, with Mrs. R. C. Taylor, chairman. Homebaked apple pie with cheese, and coffee or tea were the refreshments served the hundred fathers and mothers present. Room count award was won by Keith Dolan's 7-6 homeroom. Group singing was led by Rolland Purves, association treasurer.

The next meeting of the group will be on Thursday evening, February 19, at the San Miguel School when Founders' Day will be celebrated. An honorary life membership will be awarded at that time.

Merchant's Policing Ass'n. Meets Again

Legal aspects of a merchant employed police protection system came under discussion Monday when the Grove Chamber of Commerce Business Men's Protective Association committee met to continue its investigation and report of accomplishments.

A commission to represent the business community was named. Bill Nienaber was placed in charge of the western division, Charlie Serr, east and Ed. Montgomery, central.

Another meeting is scheduled for next Monday night at 7:30.

Fred Ward Out Of Hospital

He was returned home from the hospital for a few days late in October but later returned for a longer stay. Visitors are requested to wait until Fred is feeling a little better before putting in an appearance.

Four Students Make 100%

A semester test in English greeted the seventh graders in Mrs. June Mason's English classes when they returned from the Christmas holidays. It was given January 9. Out of approximately 180 students taking the final examination, four students earned a coveted 100%. These students were Burton Brown, 7-1, Roger Humphrey, 7-1, Sharon Cassell, 7-4, and Eleanore Chassy, 7-5. Congratulations!

Writer's Club Meets Monday

The regular meeting of the La Mesa Writer's Club will be held Monday at 1:30 p. m., in the Amherst Church, 70th and Amherst Sts. The main item of business will be "Workshop," under the direction of Elinor Webb, first vice president.

KCBQ Goes ACB - UPT

KCBQ became the first radio station in the nation to join the ABC-United Paramount Theater Network, earlier this year. Charles Salik, above, operator of the local station said, "ABC-UPT has 70 million dollars available for programs and entertainment. National advertisers are aware of this and are flocking to the stations connected with this network."

Pictured above is Graham Moore, KCBQ sales manager, upon his return from an eastern trip where he visited with agencies and clients, handing Salik, seated, a sheaf of newly signed orders.

Continued Salik, "Advertisers and listeners are in for a great era of radio progress as a result of this coalition. 1170 is going to be the bright spot on everyone's dial in the future."

We think Brownies troop number 334 is about the peachiest one in Lemon Grove. The reason is obvious. It's because it's the one we sponsor.

Booming and mushrooming in growth, California continues to increase in population at a rate of approximately 1500 persons a day in its determined bid to replace New York as the Nation's most populous State.

Buried in the financial pages of the State's newspapers the past few days have been figures which dramatically attest to the soundness of California's rapid growth. California's banks are reporting all time highs in total assets.

The Crocker First National Bank of San Francisco and Oakland, for instance, reached new highs in 1952 in total assets, $405,731,722. The Security First National Bank of Los Angeles topped $2,000,000,000 for 1952. The American Trust Company showed total resources of $1,258,920,000. And so it goes the length and breadth of the State.

It's not only money that the figures represent. It's jobs, plants, agriculture and industry. Translated another way, it's employment for the people of the fastest growing State in the Union. Proof of the fact is that official figures show more Californians were at work in non-farm businesses at the close of 1952 than ever before in the State's history.

The vision of California banks and bankers in underwriting California business and agriculture has been a prime requisite for the State's spectacular success story, a requisite too often underplayed. Without the faith of California banks in California's future, the Golden State never would have reached its present enviable stature.

Helix Highlanders See Double

Helix High School is proud of the fact that there are ten pairs of twins here, more than any school, either city or county.

In the Freshman class there are the Foland boys, (Johnny and Oliver); Charles and Elmer Puterbaugh; Milton and Nancy Schmidt; George and Kathleen Sperry; and Carolyn and Marilyn Stakle.

In the Sophomore class there are only two pair of twins, Robert and Don Brady and Jean and Joyce Dunford.

There is only one set represented in the Junior class. They are the Ahrensburg boys, Dan and Don.

Bonnie and Dixie Anderson, and Bob and Dick Jenson are the two sets that our seniors boast.

Truth Practical Christian Science Lesson Explains

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" in all Christian Science churches will point out how a practical knowledge of the truth of being overcomes inharmonious living conditions and heals disease.

The Golden Text from Psalms (89:8,14) reads, "O Lord God of hosts, who is a strong Lord like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? . . . Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face."

Plant Shasta Daisies Now for Early Bloom

When Luther Burbank applied his wizardry to the lowly daisy family, and gave us the shasta daisy we know today, he earned the gratitude of every gardener who likes to get results the easy way. Few other plants so abundantly repay a minimum of care.

SHASTA DAISY

Still most popular of the shasta daisies, according to the Bedding Plant Advisory Board, are the Alaska and other single-flowered varieties, with their strong wiry stems and wide-flung petals dancing out from a heart of pure gold. They stand about 18" high in their stocking feet. Planted in rows, they will mount guard like grenadiers along a garden path and are a standby for edging sunny borders. You also will find plantings of shasta daisies excellent as division markers between sections of the garden and as buffers to help blend one group of bright colored flowers into another.

Among the interesting and comparatively new double types of shasta daisy are the Marconi, a vigorous growing variety with full headed flowers that have shaggy petals resembling shredded wheat, and Esther Reed, a lower growing variety with a ray of wide petals and a mounded center that looks like a pin cushion. Both of these varieties now are generally available in flats.

Shasta daisies are lusty and vigorous; give them plenty of room by spacing the plants about ten inches apart. They are not particular about soil, and need little else than a sunny location and an occasional flooding. And, though full sun is best, they will stand as much as three hours of shade daily.

Set out these hardy perennial plants now; they will bloom about May and continue on through the summer. Then they will be back to greet you year after year with their bountiful bloom in your garden.

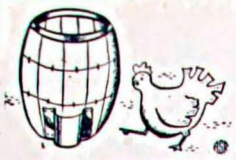
Grit Self-Feeder



It takes just a few minutes to make this handy grit, or oyster shell self feeder for poultry. All you need is a nail keg and a tin can. Saw three inches off the bottom end of one stave of the keg for the outlet. Then, use a one-pound coffee can for the feed trough. Cut this down the seam—then back along the bottom three inches. Then bend the sides out to form "wings." Finally, shape the scoop-like bottom of the can so it fits into the keg opening, tack the "wings" to the keg, and you have a feeder!

KEEP your story TOLD

If there is one enterprise on earth that the quitter should leave alone, it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk . . . it pulls It pulls gently at first but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power.—John Wanamaker.

It was John Wanamaker who once said he would never let the local newspaper go to press without his name in its advertising columns.

IRENE DODD—YOUNG LADY GOING PLACES

In just a few years, she has advanced in the telephone business from student operator to assistant chief

In August, 1943, Irene Dodd came to work for Pacific Telephone as an inexperienced student operator. Since then, she's had several promotions—to operator in charge, supervising operator, and recently to her present position as assistant chief operator. This is a familiar telephone success story. For advancing our telephone men and women as their skill and experience grows is just one more way we work to make your telephone ever more efficient and valuable to you.

A good place to work

One reason why telephone jobs are good jobs is the fact that each year thousands of telephone men and women are promoted to more responsible positions in the hundreds of communities we serve locally here in the Pacific West. Their goal: to help keep your telephone service the finest in the world.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS ONE OF TODAY'S BEST BARGAINS

Every day is exciting for Mrs. Dodd who, like many telephone women, has combined marriage and her career. She enjoys keeping house as much as she enjoys helping people with their telephone calls. Gratifying, too, is the feeling that she is helping new people get ahead in the telephone world. It's all part of telephone tradition—a tradition of service which insures that a well-trained force of men and women stands behind the good telephone service you enjoy every day.

T. V. Sets Given Grove School

The eighth grade classes of the Lemon Grove Intermediate School spent a very profitable morning, Tuesday, January 20, viewing the Inauguration Day ceremonies on television. This inauguration and past inaugurations were reviewed last week and on Monday of this week in the history classes in preparation for the important event.

For the eighth grade classes, television sets were lent to the school by C. P. Appliances, Nu Way Furniture, and McMahon Furniture, all local merchants.

In the seventh grade, Virgil Danielson lent a television set to one of the rooms, and Hazel Martindale, 3015 Washington Street, Mrs. Ben Kerfoot, 3030 Olive, and Beverly Gayeske, 8103 Golden Avenue, had classes of seventh graders to their homes during the morning to view the event of the year.

Mrs. John H. Wrede, 1764 Dayton Drive, invited some sixth grade students to her home to view the inauguration from Washington. In other classes throughout the intermediate school students listened to the ceremonies on radios.

Golden Avenue School Notes . . . .

Pupils of the Golden Avenue School assembled Friday afternoon, January 16, on the blacktop south of the school for their annual March of Dimes. Before the March, Mrs. Marie Hitchcock of La Mesa presented her trained poodles in an obedience performance. She also presented a clown puppet who led pupils in a peppy song before they began their March of Dimes.

Contributions from the March totaled $124.25. Mrs. F. R. Chapple, health chairman of the Golden Avenue School P. T. A., counted the money and will turn it over to Channing Mason and Tom Warburton, March of Dimes chairmen for Lemon Grove.

CHECK COUNTY VETERANS SERVICE Before Taking Benefits

A reference list of the benefits provided by the federal government to surviving dependents of servicemen who have died in the Korean conflict was issued San Diego County Veterans Service Department, with the suggestion that it be checked for benefits not yet applied for or received.

Many of the benefits are automatically issued to eligible survivors of Korea servicemen, Sexton said, but some are occasionally overlooked and others must be applied for by the next of kin.

In all cases, the service officer added, assistance and further information is available at 119 West "C" Street.

Sexton listed these among the principal benefits provided for surviving dependents of Korea servicemen:

Monthly compensation for widows and children, and monthly pension payments for parents who were dependent on the serviceman.

A lump-sum gratuity, equal to the serviceman's pay for six months, and payable to the next of kin; also, all accrued pay and allowances credited to the serviceman at the time of his death.

Government life insurance or indemnity benefits of $10,000, payable according to the type of coverage carried by the serviceman.

Federal old-age and survivors benefits, which may be credited to the serviceman even if he was not covered by social security in his pre-service employment. Sexton explained that social security credits are now awarded to servicemen for all their time in the armed forces since Sept. 16, 1940.

Ten points preference for widows and widowed mothers who apply for U. S. civil service employment.

The YMCA which first began 109 years ago in London has extended to 76 countries and last year there were over two million members in the United States alone.

Art Class Makes Tray Favors

Lemon Grove Intermediate School received favorable notice for the tray favors which Miss Robbin's art classes made from suggestions given in the January issue of the Junior Red Cross Bulletin. These favors went to local institutions, U. S. Naval Hospitals at San Diego and Camp Pendleton, and to servicemen leaving on ships bound for Korea.

Mary Alice Farrell, 8-3 class, and John Cornelius, 7-5 class, continue to attend the Junior Red Cross meetings once each month on Saturdays to keep our school abreast of current Junior Red Cross happenings. Mrs. June Mason sponsors the junior group.

The consultant, Dr. Wallace Beatty of the Institute of Child Study at the University of Maryland, worked with the representatives at the meetings. Dr. Daniel A. Prescott, who is head of the entire program, extended his trip to California in order to attend. He lead discussion in important phases of the child's development.

Mrs. Tait's third grade students at Vista La Mesa School welcomed Dennis Maxfield, formerly of San Diego, to their class this week.

SUGAR AND SPICE . . . This Christmas cake with a bust of General Dwight D. Eisenhower and Josef Stalin appeared on Tokyo's famed Ginza street recently. Words in Japanese written on the cake are "Give us peace." It cost $2,000 to bake and has 40 pounds of sugar coating. A passerby eyes the cake displayed in a cake shop.

PROUD PAPA IN ITALY . . . He may look a little worried at the moment, but Salvatore Motta is a proud man indeed as he weighs his newly-born son, who arrived in this vale of tears with enough heft for two babies. The infant weighed 16 pounds at birth, a record in Catania. Scale used is same on which family weighs coal. Mother Carmella is doing fine.

Grove School To Aid Bloodmobile

"No imagination is vivid enough to envisage life as it would be lived on this earth if we would transform self-centeredness into loving concern for all our fellow men." This is the thesis held by Kirby Page, noted religious leader and world affairs analyst who will speak Monday, January 26 at La Mesa Methodist Church. A fellowship dinner at 6:30 p. m. will precede Dr. Page's 7:30 p. m. address.

tainment. I think this will be a great dance and I want all of my friends there.

As this article is being written, still the total of our gatherings at the Block-of-Dimes campaign is not known, but it is believed that they raised over $500. I want to thank all of the students of Helix; the faculty; the girl scouts, brownies, and just plain people that helped in the collecting of the money, and the people that made it possible for someone to collect it. The Helix Pep Band did its usual good showing, and the Jr. High band was extremely well organized and did a splendid job. I personally collected $58.67, and a lot more people worked harder at it than me, so you can see that this campaign was a huge success.

We hope the Grove is back in one piece after having the cheerleaders and songleaders rip through the offices for money, stop cars in the middle of the streets, and other instances where people were practically forced to give money, but did it with their hearts.

'Highland Highlights' . . . Cathy Bradshaw, Helix student, was struck with polio as many of you know by now, at the beginning of this school year, she is out of the iron lung 7 minutes every day and will carry on her studies at the Hospital . . . Pat Benton, a junior at Helix, who had her right leg amputated just below her knee, is in great spirits says her doctor: Pat was struck by a car in Spring Valley while waiting for a school bus a few months ago . . . One history class at Helix collected as much as $26.00 in just five days: if students can do it, so can you, so give to the "March of Dimes" as long as the opportunity is at hand . . . The Freshman class is the largest class in school, there are more girls than boys at Helix, the total of girls in the 9th grade is 197, with 229 boys, a total of 426 students; figure that one out . . .

ed to it — that will be different, said McCormick, seven years a Grove resident.

It just occurred to us that Lemon Grove not only had the tallest decorated Christmas tree in the county, it also had the longest.

—0—

We have had several queries this past week (three to be exact) as to what happened to that long pending report of the Civic Investigation Committee regarding future civic plans.

—0—

Grovers (people who live here) were surprised to read last week that the county Board of Supervisors rejected a proposed zone variance that would allow erection of a "banjo" sign. They were surprised not only because the Board chose to enforce a zoning ordinance in an area where such ordinances had been pretty much forgotten, but also because two similar signs are already in existence. And, they have been for some time. A banjo sign was described as "a sign, usually illuminated, suspended from a supporting post about 7 feet high."

—0—

We are glad to comply with the request that we say something good about the local employees of the post office. That they do a worthy task was proved recently when a delive service attempted to delive parcel to a postoffice box n ber. Since it was the only kn address of the receiver, the senger was stumped. But "Frenchy" Faucher, chief of local mail outlet. After valiantly searching through a telephone directory, and quick consultation with his many acquaintances and occult powers, Frenchy was able to identify the boxholde true address. The boxholder w a partner to a newly formed business that had rented the postoffice box under its fictitious name. Yes, the package was delivered.

Latest scoop on the prospective new postoffice is that a federal man was about last week averaging business rentals so that the government will know what it can expect to pay.

HOPE AND HIS HOPEFULS . . . Ever try to pick the 14 most beautiful girls from a crowd of 436 beauties? Bob Hope did it, turning producer for the first time, and picked the girls for a musical he will produce. Here he is with two of the beauties he selected. Now Ruth looks back on those grim days and teaches ballet.

Local Adventists Score Worship Controls

Protesting current violations of religious freedom over the world, the Seventh - day Adventist church this week set Saturday, to be observed as "International Religious Liberty Day." The church will unite with more than 10,000 other Adventist congregations in such a special service.

Citing recent examples of religious intolerance in Colombia, Spain, and Italy, Pastor Willis Hyatt told a preliminary planning meeting, "The greatest menace to a free world is not the threat of atheism from outside, but something more sinister: religious intemperance inside our own boundaries of freedom that would lead well-meaning Christian people to persecute and restrict their unbelieving neighbors."

Special prayer will be offered in behalf of freedom of religion in every land.

Congregational Church Notes . . .

Starting February 1st, Rev. Apra will hold a series of eight sermons which take the place of Confirmation Classes. Confirmation lessons and quiz will be given out after the services so that the entire family can study and work them together at home. The subject to be introduced the first Sunday will be "The Bible."

The Missionary meeting will be held next Thursday to accomodate the guest speaker, Miss Doris Lester, of London, England. Doris with her sister, Murial are called the "Jane Adam's" of London for their settlement work in that city. Miss Lester will speak on her travels in Europe. Admission is free.

Grove Fire Execs. At Organizational Meet

A rural firemen's group, similar to the now inactive County Firemens' Association is being formed with E. C. Bernhard, Ramona fire chief as temporary chairman.

A meeting is scheduled to be held February 27th at the Lemon Grove fire station for naming permanent officers.

Tentative plans, as a result of the initial meeting which was attended by more than 30 firemen and fire commissioners, call for quarterly meetings to promote fire legislation affecting outlying communities.

Main bone of contention is the rural department's responsibility to combat fires without power to enact fire prevention measures.

Local fire executives involved in the project are "Pappy" Hensley, local fire chief, Chan Mason, fire commissioners and Tom Parsons, secretary of the commission.

Vista La Mesa Quits School Petition

Vista La Mesa has withdrawn its petition to pull out from the Lemon Grove Elementary School District, Ed Kinyon told the Review this week.

Kinyon is chairman of the Unification Committee of the Civic League of Vista La Mesa. He is a Civil Service employee with the Naval Hospital.

"Withdrawal proceedings were established to permit our youngsters to attend Helix, the high school nearest their residence," Kinyon said. "We took our stand during the fight on Unification to prevent a break-up of the district because that would affect us seriously. "We have never had a quarrel with the Grove School District as such," he said.

Kinyon said that there are a great number of problems concerning Vista La Mesa and Lemon Grove alike that could be solved, in his opinion, if the leaders of both communities could sit down and discuss them in a spirit of friendliness.

The team is a regular contestant in the Hi-Y basketball contests each year as part of its year round club activity. It is sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club.

W. D. Dean, 7731 Lansing Drive, has commenced work on a two store commercial building at 7194 and 96 Broadway. The building is 25 x 55 feet overall. One side of the building has already been leased to Mel Prine of Escondido.

Prine plans a snack bar featuring root beer, Coney Island sandwiches and malts.

Young Democrats To Frolic For Stevenson

In what may well be the first fund-raising effort of any local organization in the nation to help pay off the deficit in the National Democratic Committee, San Diego Young Democrats today announced a "Stevenson Birthday Ball" for this purpose.

Sumner Alpert of 7537 Cuyamaca Ave., Lemon Grove, who is secretary of the organization, said the dance will be held Friday, February 6, at Craftsman Hall, 3909 Centre St., San Diego. New campaign donations of $1.50 or more will entitle the donor to a ticket of admission.

Alpert quoted the organization's president, Dr. Joseph Farber, who explained the urgency of liquidating the deficit.

"Governor Stevenson has refused to participate in any political action until this deficit has been paid," he said. "Since many prominent Republican officials, as well as Democrats, have expressed a desire that he head a 'loyal opposition' we feel it is most important that he be freed of circumstances which would keep him out of public life, and this is our organization's way of taking a first step."

Donations may be made and tickets obtained from Alpert, H9-3998.

More and more major items, such as refrigerators, ranges, and furniture are going into Lemon Grove homes because there is no necessity of making a down payment — and subsequent payments are spread over the years so as to be painless.

In many cases, old items, even discarded furniture is acceptable as part of the payment. How this plan works will be explained by telephone if you call H9-2171.

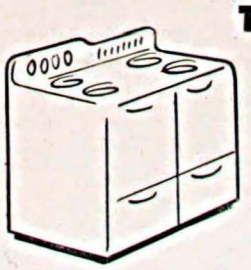
JUST ONE OF 9 REASONS TO CHANGE TO A NEW ELECTRIC RANGE!



FOR A MODERN KITCHEN – GET A MODERN ELECTRIC RANGE.

Yes, an electric range is such a cooking pleasure – because electricity is such a clean fuel. No smoke, no smudge, no carbon. Your electric range stays clean – your utensils stay clean – your kitchen stays clean.

And, of course, cleanliness is just one of nine good reasons you need an electric range.

Count the eight others: 1. It's cool. 2. It's modern. 3. It's fast. 4. It's thrifty. 5. It's dependable. 6. Your electric range preserves vitamins and minerals for health. 7. Preserves the wonderful flavors of all foods – because you cook with so little water. And 8. An electric range is automatic – to save you time, to save you work.

It's time for you to change to an electric range – and make your life better 9 ways. See your dealer, now.

CAPITOL AND COUNTY News Letter

by RALPH R. CLOYED
ASSEMBLYMAN

The California State Legislature opened its 1953 regular session at 12 o'clock noon, Monday, Jan. 5, and the holiday spirit that had prevailed around the capitol during the morning as old friends greeted one another, quickly disappeared as they settled down to elect a new speaker of the Assembly.

The speakership was left open when Sam Collins became a candidate for State Senator. An interparty battle had developed between James W. Silliman of Monterey County and Jonathon J. Hollibaugh of Los Angeles County.

Thomas W. Erwin (R) of Los Angeles County made the nominating speech for Silliman and said, "he is a leader for clean and honest government; he will fill the office with dignity, fairness and honesty."

Marvin E. Sherwin (R) of Alameda County said in making the seconding speech, "we want a man independent of special interests who can make decisions based on the greatest good for the entire State of California. Mr. Silliman fullfills these requirements to the highest degree."

The tension was greatly relieved when Hollibaugh arose and said, "I bow to the majority rule," and released the members that had been pledged to him and pledged his support to Silliman saying he had the highest respect for Silliman and there was no bitter feeling on his part, and as he continued to talk issued a severe blast at Governor Warren, making it apparent that he could not conceal his bitter defeat. It was like a cow that gives a good bucket of milk and then kicks it over.

When the vote was called for, only two members failed to vote for Silliman.

After both houses were organized, the Senate was invited to the Assembly and the joint houses listened to Governor Warren present his program, which placed special emphasis on expanding the highway program.

His plan suggested an increase in the feul tax and other highway users tax.

He advocated increased hospital facilities for better care of State feeble minded and senile, greater mosquito control, and that child care centers be put on a permanent basis.

He warned against decreasing contributions to the unemployment insurance fund.

He recommended additional money for the study of the Feather River Project, creation of a State Department of Water consolidating various water agencies.

His message stressed approval of contracts with the State Department of Public Health to supply health service to 16 counties that are without health officers.

At previous sessions he had urged State aid to the totally and permanently disabled that are now supported by the county. This was defeated by the Legislature in the 1951 session, he urged reconsideration this year.

Warren indicated that he will not re-introduce the public health insurance bill (often referred to as socialized medicine).

The comments by legislators on the Governor's program varied with - it's the same malarkey to an excellent and well thought-out program, but the majority were concerned more about where the money would come from, and how the entire financial program would fit together.

Most agreed that some of the Governor's program would be rejected at least it was quite a challenge to the Legislature.

The new Assembly setup requires both parties select in a party caucus their rules committee nominess. The republicans choose Harold K. Levering, Los Angeles; Luther (Abe) Lincoln, Oakland; and Ralph R. Cloyed, Chula Vista.

The democrats selected Augustus F. Hawkins, Los Angeles; Bernard Brady, San Francisco; and John J. McFall, Monteka. The nominations were approved unanimously. The balance of power rests with the speaker, an ex-officio member.

Speaker Silliman named Levering as the majority party floor leader. The democrats elected Vincent Thomas of Los Angeles minority party floor leader. Other committee chairman and committee members announced by the speaker gave particular recognition to newly elected men and placed them in much better position to show their abilities than formerly had been the policy.

Committee appointments for San Diego County legislators follow:

Conservation, Planning and Public Works — Luckel and Cloyed.

Present at the opening session and guests of the San Diego County delegation were Mr. and Mrs. John Cotton and Gordon Phillips. Other visitors at the Capitol during the week were Charles Berry of the Board of Equalization, Supervisors Dave Bird, Dan Rossi and Dean Howell with Mrs. Howell, O. W. Campbell and Jean Vincent.

Safe Shaft Cleaner

When grass or weed stems bind tightly around revolving shafts or axles of farm equipment, it's a vexing and sometimes dangerous job to dig them loose. But here's a safe shaft-cleaner; a steel quarter or half-inch rod, with an 8 or 10-inch handle, and a sharp hook on one end. With it you can break the stems and clean the shaft without danger of losing a finger or hand—even if you've been careless enough to leave the shaft in motion. One farmer made several, one for each implement where wrapped shafts was a problem.
